

Supporting women human rights defenders in conflict and post-conflict situations

Human Rights Council 49th session

Virtual Side Event

Tuesday 8 March 2022 11.30–12.30 Geneva (CET)

Women human rights defender are crucial agents and leaders of change. However, due to their gender, women human rights defenders face particular obstacles and security risks. What are these gendered obstacles and risks? How can women human rights defenders best be supported and protected by States and other actors?

OPENING STATEMENT

Pekka Haavisto

Minister for Foreign Affairs, Finland

PANELLISTS

Mary Lawlor

UN Special Rapporteur on the Situation of Human Rights Defenders

Horia Mosadiq

Human Rights Activist, Executive Director
Conflict Analysis Network (CAN)

Ilwad Elman

Director of Program & Development
Elman Peace & Human Rights Centre

Pooja Patel

Programme Director
International Service for Human Rights

MODERATED BY

Heidi Hautala

Vice-President, Member of Parliament
European Parliament

You are welcome to join this discussion!

Click here to join!

Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland

#FIinHRC

 Norway

 International Service
for Human Rights